RESEARCH & WORKS

CARE AS A LENS TO EXPLORE NORMATIVE PROCESSES IN ONLINE COMMUNITY MODERATION PHD PROJECT

Since Feb. 2016 | Bath, UK | Supervised by Dr. Leon Watts

This Human-Computer Interaction (HCI) PhD project will address the potential of interaction design to explore normative processes in online community moderation, using care and norm negotiation as lenses. It will examine at how online community caregivers engage with their community, through designs that support moderation in online communities.
