Matthias Langer (University of Strathclyde)

Spectral enclosures for boundary value problems

In this talk I will consider spectral enclosures for certain boundary value problems. In particular, I will consider elliptic problems with non-local and non-self-adjoint boundary conditions and Schrödinger operators with potentials that are supported on hypersurfaces. In the latter example I shall also focus on the case when the coupling constant converges to zero.