

1st Researchers' Conference

Exploring New Territories

Interdisciplinary Research and Collaboration

12 February 2009, Hilton City Hotel, Bath

Exploring New Territories - a ONE-day conference, organized to meet the needs of growing interest in national and international interdisciplinary collaboration.

2009 Highlights Include:

- Premium exposition of national and international interdisciplinary collaboration in progress at the South-West Universities
- In-depth Q&A session with a panel providing insight into collaboration issues
- A dynamic keynote session featuring successful leaders in interdisciplinary collaboration
- FREE workshops providing fundamental information on skills needed to instigate an interdisciplinary collaboration
- FREE 1:1 advice in a 'grant proposal clinic'
- FREE registration package that includes access to all activities; poster exhibition, service providers' stalls and abundant networking opportunities

For more information and to register go to:

<http://www.bath.ac.uk/research/researchers/community/rsconfhome.html>

Registration deadline: 24th January 2009

researchers@bath
focus on your future